Macomb's HyVee Donates To Helping Hands

Twice each month, Macomb's HyVee bakery donates their surplus to Roseville's Food Pantry. Helping Hands would like to extend a warm thank-you to them for their sharing spirit.

The Community's support through both food and monetary gifts makes it possible for Helping Hands to continue to assist families in need of additional food supplies.

This month a special thank you goes out to:
Western Illinois Accounting and Tax, Roseville
Sugar Tree Grove UP Church, Monmouth
Brad & Danielle Beard, Roseville
Roseville Christian Church
PEO Chapter N
The Stropes Family
Jerry Schrader

Come be a HELPING HAND!

Roseville's food pantry is always looking for additional volunteers. If you've been thinking about sharing a little time with your community, please give Cheryl Britt a call.

Here Max McIntyre helps repackage bulk oatmeal packets into paper sacks.

River Bend's Partners in Ending Hunger Training meets at Roseville Community Center.

The annual training session for the southern quadrant of River Bend Food Bank's partner region met at RCC to review procedures and learn about progress made in the past year towards the goal of ending hunger in eastern Iowa and western Illinois. Pictured is Bob Evans of River Bend as he shares information on each of the counties that work as partner agencies with the food bank.
