The Pantry has been blessed.

Numbers for August, 2019:

202 Family Visits
798 individuals served, including 351 children 18 and under.
37 families visited twice in the month.

"Never believe that a few caring people can't change the world, for indeed, that is all who ever have. (Paraphrased from Margaret Mead)

The Helping Hands of Roseville is able to serve the community in part because of the willingness of many individuals who give of their time and energy in a volunteer role. Mark Huston is one of those incredible individuals! His generous gift of time and compassion to the Pantry and the visiting families is deeply appreciated.
